

A Vision of Squam: Artists in Community 1st Annual Juried Show hosted at artstream Gallery September 2009

This show is open to anyone who attended or taught at the 2008 Squam Art Workshops. This show is meant to be the story of how your work may have shifted and grown, how your lives as artists were perhaps changed, how the experiences you had at Squam in 2008 may have allowed you to see your work in a different way, how each of your artistic communities have grown and expanded and finally, what kind of work came out of your experience.

MEDIA:

- Artwork in any 2 or 3-D medium will be eligible, including: painting, printing, paper arts, sculpture, textiles, mixed media, photographs, digital media, book arts, video, and recycled art.
- All entries should be created by the artist after 15 September 2008.
- Each piece must arrive ready to hang or stand on a pedestal.
- Framed pieces or works on canvas and board, please use d-rings with wire, mirror loops with wire or a keyhole on the back. No tape, no sawtooth hangers.
- Works on paper can be finished with mat and foam core backing but there is limited space availability for those pieces.

SUBMISSIONS:

- Submit images of your work as JPGs size of each image not to exceed 500KB. Please make sure that your images are as close to original colour and that they are clear and easily viewable. Save each JPG for web.
